Shabbat in the City:

A Musical Journey of the Jewish Diaspora

Friday, October 8th, Hillel will throw a Shabbat in the City! We head up to Tacoma to light the candles, partake in a light kiddush, and enjoy a wonderful performance of the music of three amazing Israeli composers. Hillel provides the transportation to and from the concert. Meet at the library loop at 4:00pm. The vans leave promptly at 4:30pm.

SPACE IS LIMITED! Tickets are $5 for the first 24 people. After that, tickets go up to $10.
Please RSVP by Monday, October 4th, to anneke@evergreenhillel.org.

Friday, October 8, 2010 at 7:30 pm
The Great Hall of Annie Wright School

Marc Lavry: Three Jewish Dances, Op. 192 for Violin and Piano
Ernest Bloch: Three Nocturnes for Piano Trio
Erwin Schulhoff: Duo for Violin and Cello
David Schiff: Divertimento from "Gimpel the Fool"

The long line of great Jewish composers inevitably leads to a rich national heritage of music for Israel. The Europa Chamber Ensemble and clarinetist Cindy Renander explore the music of the Jewish diaspora, as well as the music of contemporary Israel. There will be klezmer music, of course!

Thanks to a wonderful, anonymous donor, we have been able to partially subsidize the cost of these tickets.
